We are writing to you about court order number 200012855 concerning your responsibility for child support, alimony or court ordered victim restitution.

What We Plan To Do

We have been ordered to take $200.00 from each monthly payment you are due to pay your obligation for child support, alimony or court ordered victim restitution. We withheld $265.00 from the payment you will receive around July 1, 2016. After that we will withhold $265.00 each month. You will receive another letter showing the payment amount you will receive.

If You Disagree With The Decision

If you disagree with the decision of the court that issued the garnishment order, you will need to contact them directly or have a lawyer do it for you.

We are writing to you about court order number 200012855 concerning your responsibility for child support, alimony or court ordered victim restitution.

You were previously told that we would begin withholding money again to pay your obligation for child support, alimony or court ordered victim restitution when Social Security payments were payable. We will begin withholding again beginning April 2022.

What We Plan To Do

We have been ordered to take a different amount of money out of your monthly payments.

We have been ordered to take $200.00 from each monthly payment you are due to pay your obligation for child support, alimony or court ordered victim restitution. We withheld $265.00 from the payment you will receive around May 3, 2022. After that we will withhold $265.00 each month. You will receive another letter showing the payment amount you will receive.

If You Disagree With The Decision

If you disagree with the decision of the court that issued the garnishment order, you will need to contact them directly or have a lawyer do it for you.
