Dear Ms. Minor,

Re: Response to Your Baseless Claim Regarding Unauthorized Use of Your Voice

I represent Dwayne Williams, professionally known as Diamond K, and I am writing in response to your letter dated May 21, 2025, in which you claim that your voice was used without your permission in a recording associated with Diamond K. Let me make this clear: your claims are entirely false, and your actions appear to be nothing more than an extortion attempt.

First, the song you reference, "Calling Your Name," is not a track that Diamond K is involved with in the way you suggest. The correct title of the song is "Calling My Name," and it does not contain a female voice. The only vocal contributions to the track are from Diamond K and the artist Drake, with Diamond K credited as a writer for the sampled material, not as a producer or performer of the vocals. You have never been in the studio with Diamond K, and there is no reason to believe your voice is on this recording.

This latest attempt follows your previous, unfounded claim two years ago that Diamond K was the father of your grown son. As you know, that claim was debunked through a DNA test conducted on May 19, 2023, under case number GCUS402708, which conclusively established that Diamond K was not the father. Your current demand for $500,000 to retract your false accusations mirrors that prior scheme. This pattern of extortion and false claims is unacceptable, and Diamond K will not stand for it.

Please be advised that my client is fully prepared to take immediate legal action to protect his reputation and rights. If you do not cease and desist from making these false claims and withdraw your demand for payment, we will proceed with a defamation lawsuit and seek charges for extortion. Furthermore, we will pursue punitive damages for the harm caused by your malicious and baseless allegations.

We demand that you retract your claims in writing and issue a formal apology. A failure to comply will result in the initiation of legal proceedings, including depositions, subpoenas, and all necessary measures to prove the falsity of your statements and to hold you accountable for the harm your actions have caused. We also reserve the right to seek recovery of any legal costs incurred in defending against these baseless accusations.

Please refrain from further contact with my client and send all future communication directly to me. Should you wish to discuss this matter further, please contact me at thelawofficeofjohnjackson@gmail.com.

This letter serves as formal notice that any further defamatory actions or attempts at extortion will be met with swift legal action, including potential claims for damages.

Sincerely,
John Jackson, Esq.
The Law Office of John Jackson
