Me Roberson,

If I do not hear from you this week with all the supporting documents I will be filing a formal complaint with the Attorney General's office and explain to him how monies are being fraudulently from overpayments being routed to ghost recipients from accounts like mine.

Have a great day!

I will review your information again with an attorney on 5/5/2020 when I am in the local office again. The custodial parent stated she did not receive arrears balance. She also stated the child is not with you. The case is collect and disbursed; we are not enforcing the case. If you file to close the case in our office through the court you can do this.

Also I want to see what documents you used to put the balance in initially. There was no order so what is the basis for making this balance up?

I want all the docs you have and the current statement of my account to be provided to me.

I keep hearing things but no evidence no documents from your office.

What is the basis for your attorney to deny my request?

I want a written explanation from the your office explaining the basis for the balance?

I want to see evidence now not statements that are clearly inconclusive!

I will also be contacting the attorney generals office to ask for an investigation into how my balance got set up and how it got adjusted and who got the money for the reductions of my balance.

Inform my position to your office attorney.

Good morning,
Our office is closed to the public. I gave the information to the legal unit. The Lead attorney was not willing to give credit per the documents you gave. I also contacted the custodial parent and she denied the statements. Once the courts reopen you will need to request the court to state for child support to credit your accounts. If you have an attorney he can file this for you.

Gm Ms. Roberson,

I provided you with all the court orders. My oldest turns 18 on August 4, 2020.

I need that payment stopped. What needs to happen for the payment to stop?

Also are your offices open?

Thanks,

Faras Khan

Mr. Faras
I apologize we do not have access to your folder. We do not have access to the building at this time. The attorney is Chris Kunz who stated we do not handle marital property. Once we have access we can resume.

Dear Ms Roberson,

I have repeatedly asked you to send me the statement and now 8 weeks later I am no closer to getting this highly suspicious issue of a $32000 balance being resolved.

It seems that there is an attempt to conceal and maybe not but I am getting the impression that you are deliberately not answering my questions.

I want the name of the lead attorney whom you mention below and I want his/ her contact information.

I want the latest statement of my balance and I want to know if your agency has put in the data necessary to stop and adjust my payment in August when my son turns 18.

These are the same asks we discussed over 8 weeks ago.

Good morning,

Mr. Kunz the lead attorney stated the order was given you credit for martial property in the amount of $38,000.00 . Our agency only gives credit for child support or if the order specifically states credit for spousal support. I cannot review with anyone else until we are open to the public.

Roberson,

We are now in SIXTH week and i have asked you twice to send me a statement which you have not. You have given me no timeline and you continue to drag this on.

If this is something beyond your pay grade then please connect me to your supervisor. I need answers as to what is the date this will be resolved?!

GM, Ms. Roberson,

We are now in the 4th week when and I would think that this issue to be resolved.

Also I asked for the latest printout and I never received one.

And As I have mentioned that one child turns 18 and the youngest now lives with me so you had said a modification would be done.

So far I have none?

Thanks,

Faras

Also my oldest turns 18 and the youngest 12 year old is now

Modification issue?

Thanks,
